

South American Stars: Errázuriz, Catena & Garzón

Errázuriz Max
Reserva Carmenere

Catena Malbec

Bodega Garzón
Reserve Tannat

The Errázuriz Max Reserva Carmenere displays a dull and deep violet color. On the nose, notes of black and red fruits, herbs and spiced character as roasted red bell pepper, rosemary and dill, all framed by soft notes of chocolate and roasted coffee beans. On the palate, appears notes of nuts, dark cherries and coffee. It shows good structure with elegant, fine grained tannins that give a silky texture on the palate.

The Catena Malbec shows a deep violet color with purple reflections. The nose offers concentrated aromas of ripe red and dark fruits with delicate floral notes like violets and lavender, and traces of vanilla and moca. The mouthfeel is rich and concentrated, with blueberries and blackberries notes and a touch of leather and cinnamon. The finish presents well integrated-tannins with bright acidity and a flinty minerality that gives the wine exceptional length.

The Bodega Garzón Reserve Tannat is a juicy, full-bodied wine. Rich purple color with aromas of very fresh red and black fruits such as raspberries and plums, with delicate spices. On the palate, layers and layers of bright red and black fruits, tobacco, spice, dark chocolate and slate are neatly framed by mature tannins. The wine finishes with lingering minerality and freshness.
